SENATOR BURTON SECLUDES HIMSELF

Never Appears at the Capitol, Supreme Court Expected to Renand Long Transacts His Business.

WILL RETURN TO KANSAS.

In Abilene He Will Await the De cision of the Highest Courts, and May Resign Seat if Not Expelled.

The Republic Bureau, 14th St. and Pennsylvania Ave. Washington, April 14.—Senator Burton, who was convicted at St. Louis, is still in Washington, and expects to remain a week longer, by which time the house upon which he holds a lease, will have been disposed of. He has remained almost in seclusion, never appearing at the Capitol; and only occasionally visiting his office in the Senate Annex. All of his business as Senator from Kansas is now transacted through the office of Senator Long, the junior Senator from the Whatever the outcome of Senator Burton's legal efforts to secure a new trial, he will not be a candidate to succeed himself. He has been a most popular man in his State in past years, but the accusation against him, even if shown legally to be untrue, will prevent his return to the Senate.

the Senate.

He will resign his position before the expiration of his term—March 4, 1967—If, in the meantime, the Senate does not take his case up and expei him. He does not intend to appear again in the Senate—ast least, not until he may have been vindicated in the courts. He will go to his home in Abilene and await the the outcome there. He will not communicate with any of the departments, or attempt in any way to exercise his official privileges, and, to all intents and purposes, will rettre from public life.

Représentative Curtis of Kansas, who is the strongest man mentioned to succeed Senator Burton, was at the White House to-day, talking with the President about a consulship in San Domingo for a negro constituent. Mr. Curtis was the leading competitor of Senator Long for the Senatorship a short time ago, but his defeat then did not lessen his ambition to come to the Senate.

Governor Bailey, the present executive of Kansas, is hostile to Representative Curtis, and should there be a vacancy in the senatorship before the Legislature meets next January, would appoint some one clse to the place—some one, too, who would be Mr. Curtis's strongest competitor for the honor.

On the other hand, the incoming Legislature and Governor are counted upon by Mr., Curtis's firends as friendly to him. Mr. Hoch, the Republican nominee for Governor, is likely to appoint Curtis, it is said, in case there should be a vacancy after the Legislature meets next January. It is not thought that the United States Senate will take up the case of Senator Burton at this session, hat will left go until the highest courts have passed upon the appeal for a new trial. He will resign his position before the

From the Royal Museum in Vienna, the Dector has received specimens of uranife taken from the mines of Joachimstal, Bohemia, in the years, 1805, 1807, 1812 and 1853, and exposed since that time in glass cases in the imperial Museum at Vienna.

These specimens caused a sensitive diamond to become luminous in the dark although a board seven-eighths of an inch in thickness separated them from the gem itself.

From scientists abread, Dector Kunz has obtained specimens of rare radio-active minerals, including Willemite, forwarded to him by M. Currie,

-Letters of administration on the estate of F. A. Heidorn, who died in Bridgeton Monday, were issued in the Probate Court at Clayton yesterday to Doctor William H. Heidorn. His bond was fixed at $12.000. Heidorn died without making a will.

-Morris Hummelbaum filed suit for divorce in the Clayton Circuit Court yesterday against Rosa Hummelbaum, alleging that she would not get out of bed in the mornings to cook breakfast for him, and had a habit of visiting neighbors at suppertime. He also alleges that she thought he could have prevented their daughter's death. The Hummelbaums were married in Poland April 10, 1882, and separated April 12, 1994.

-The funeral of Charles A. Robinson, man theatrical performances can be produced.

Architectural plans for a combined office building and theater have already been drawn. It is proposed to locate the new playhouse on Grand avenue, between Olive street and Finney avenue, The auditorium is to seat about 1.800 persons, and will have galleries and boxes. The building will be absolutely fireproof, and the exterior design will be of the German renaissance style. April 12, 1994.

The funeral of Charles A, Robinson, who died suddenly Wednesday morning at his home in Old Orchard, will take place this afternoon. The body will be buried in the Oak Hill Cemetery. His brother denied yesterday that he died without medical attendance, saying he was taken ill with a violent nervous attack at 10 o'clock in the morning, which was followed by convulsions and a hemorrhage.

Low Temperature and Biting Wind at Metropolis.

New York, April 14 .- For the first time in many years, New Yorkers to-day witnessed a real snowstorm in mid-April. At one period it assumed the proportions of regular winter storm and the low tem perature and biting wind, which whirled the large flakes, made it most uncom-fortable for the thousands on their way to business in the city.

Although the fall of snow was rather heavy, the flakes melted as soon as they struck the ground.

Clerk of the lower court to send up a correct certified copy, as the original copy of the record had been changed, and asked that the deposition of Circuit Judge Eby be taken.

The court then announced that setting aside the submission of the case and the granting of a writ of certiorari to the Clerk to send up a certified copy of the record did not purge the record of error, and took the case under advisement.

A decision of the court is expected soon, in which it will be settled whether or not Mr. Whitecotton was guilty of falsifying the records as charged.

JUDGE DYSART LOSES FIRST MONTH'S SALARY.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Macon, Mo., April 14.—The first month's salary of Police Judge-Elect Thomas Dysart will go to the women of the Civic Improvement League. His honor-to-be didn't mean it that way at all.

At that time Dysart was the nominee of the Democratic party for Police Judge. There is not a white-haired veteran of the Civil or any other war that can recall the time when the Democratic party ever elected a Police Judge here.

Dysart was running to preserve the party organization. His chances of the election were not considered seriously. So, to save $5, he told the committee that he would give them his first month's salary when elected Police Judge.

Not being well versed in politics, and thinking a Democrat's chances in Missouri a pretty fair asset, they accepted the compromise. Nobody in town was more surprised than Dysart when the ballots showed him a victor. The office pays $5 a month and the fees are as much again. If he'd given the women the $5 which they asked him for he'd have been at least $5 to the good, and probably more.

He received a pretty little note from the chairman to-day, congratulating him on donation. Since the election Dysart has been looking up the law on "games of chance," in the hopes of finding something to invalidate his pre-election contract.
